

Little Scientists® Improves Student Achievement in New Haven Summer Academy 2017

The general science assessment was administered before students had 4 Little Scientists hands-on, inquiry – based science lessons, and scores were compared to students achievement after implementation of the Little Scientists lessons. The program took place in 6 public schools in New Haven, Connecticut.